Removal, storage and refixing of kerbset or larger memorial £538.75

Preparation of graves

Where cemeteries do not employ their own gravedigger Neville Funerals will arrange a gravedigger to attend to open the grave for the burial to take place. Depending on the place of burial a grave can be prepared to a single, double or treble depth. We would also arrange, with the necessary permissions, for an existing grave to be re-opened for an additional burial (space permitting).

Charges for preparation of grave spaces will be given on application

When two or more coffins are interred at the same time - an additional £270 per extra coffin
